ANNUAL HOTEL SECURITY
AWARDS PRESENTATION 2024

23 October 2024, Furama RiverFront, Singapore

Winners of the Individual Security Awards

3 categories of awards are given out to acknowledge individuals for their contributions towards creating a safe and secure environment in the hotel, namely:

1. SHA Bravery Award (Security / Non-Security Personnel)
2. SHA Vigilance Award
3. SHA Honesty Award

Individual nominations were assessed by a panel made up of SHA / SPF / NCPC representatives and exceptional nominees are singled out for special mention.

SHA Bravery Award

The SHA Bravery Award seeks to acknowledge acts of bravery displayed by both security and non-security personnel which had prevented the loss of lives, property and accident/crime occurrence.

A total of 55 nominees for the SHA Bravery Award were received from 26 hotels. The following 5 nominees were given the Special Mention Award for their acts of bravery:

Mustaffa Bin Abdul Jalil
Captain, The Dining Room
Sheraton Towers Singapore Hotel

One of the kitchen staff did not turn off the stove after frying the fries, resulting in the oil overheating in the pot.

Mustaffa saw that the pot had caught fire and he swiftly used a nearby fire extinguisher to put out the fire.

His swift actions prevented the fire from endangering employees and causing serious damage to the hotel premises.

His quick action deserves to be commended.

Herbert Lee Hao Jie
Banquet Manager
The Westin Singapore

While the Banquet Operations team was preparing for events in the morning, an electrical fire suddenly broke out at the premises. A Banquet part-timer saw the fire and immediately shouted for help.

Upon hearing the commotion, Herbert rushed to the area from his office, seized the fire extinguisher and doused the burning flames. His decisive action prevented the fire from getting out of control and helped calm the whole situation.

Kashyap Sanjaykuma
Assistant Housekeeper
The Westin Singapore

The incident happened in the early hours of operations at the hotel's pastry kitchen, where an electrical fire broke out. The only pastry associate who was on duty at that time panicked and froze, not knowing what to do.

Fortunately, Sanjay was walking past the pastry kitchen at that moment and without any delay, he grabbed the nearest fire extinguisher and immediately put out the fire.

His swift actions prevented the fire from endangering employees and causing serious damage to the hotel premises.

Kenneth Luah Jin Kai
Assistant Manager, Front Office
Village Hotel Sentosa by Far East Hospitality

Hotel restaurant staff called the reception to request assistance for a choking guest. Kenneth and his colleague quickly rushed to the scene.

The father of the subject informed Kenneth that his daughter, who was choking, was not breathing. Kenneth noted that her lips had also turned purple. Kenneth calmly attempted to clear the airway of the guest while asking his colleague to call 995.

The operator instructed Kenneth to perform cardiopulmonary resuscitation until paramedics arrived. They took over the situation and thankfully, the subject's life was saved.

Kenneth's swift action is to be applauded.

Abdul Muhaimin Bin Abd Malek
Team Leader – Fire Safety
W Singapore – Sentosa Cove

Muhaimin and his colleague responded to a call on a drowning incident. Upon arrival at the scene, the hotel guest, who was a child, was observed to be lying on the floor and having difficulty breathing; her face was turning blue.

Muhaimin immediately transferred the child to a sun lounge chair and placed her in a recovery position where she suddenly vomited a mixture of water and blood, and started crying. Muhaimin calmed her down while waiting for the ambulance to arrive. His quick response had prevented a more serious incident from happening.

SHA Vigilance Award

The SHA Vigilance Award is presented to hotel staff for their exemplary performance in the prevention or detection of crime in the hotels.

A total of 104 nominees for the SHA Vigilance Award were received from 39 hotels. The following 6 nominees were given the Special Mention Award for their acts of vigilance:

Chew Yoke Hee (Debby)
Restaurant Manager
Goodwood Park Hotel Pte Ltd

Debby was checking the restaurant's outdoor sitting area when she saw a boy struggling in the pool. She knew something was wrong and alerted a chef nearby who immediately threw a life buoy to the 15 year old boy. The boy was then safely rescued out of the pool.

Debby's vigilance and quick action deserve to be commended.

Sebastian Tan Chew Seng
Senior Security Executive
JEN Singapore Tanglin by Shangri-La

Sebastian, while on duty in the CCTV room, noticed a hotel guest placing a small plastic bag inside a traffic cone in the B2 carpark. Sebastian promptly checked the item, suspecting it contained prohibited drugs. Sebastian retrieved the items and informed the Duty Manager immediately and the police were called to assist.

The police seized the items and referred the case to the Central Narcotics Bureau (CNB). When the guest and his girlfriend returned to the hotel, they were arrested, and a search was conducted with a K9 unit.

Sebastian's vigilance and prompt actions significantly contributed to the swift handling of this incident.

Ang Siew Yean Amelyn
Outlet Manager
M Hotel Singapore City Centre

Amelyn was passing by Level 2 foyer area when she detected a strong burning smell and promptly informed the Duty Manager. Upon investigating, it was found that a small fire started in the ventilation trunking in-between Anson IV Meeting Room and The Buffet Foyer.

As a precaution, Amelyn and her colleagues, under the guidance of the CERT team, swiftly assisted with the evacuation of guests from The Buffet due to the heavy smoke from the fire which had filled the entire foyer. In the meantime, her other colleagues attempted to put out the fire using fire extinguishers while waiting for the arrival of SCDF.

Amelyn's vigilance and prompt actions helped to minimize potential harm and damage to the hotel and its guests.

Jesper Ng Chun Keet
Guest Service Ambassador
M Hotel Singapore City Centre

Jesper, whilst on duty, noticed that a middle-aged drunken Caucasian man was talking to a Chinese boy at the lobby. The subject was seen placing his hand on the child's shoulder inappropriately.

Jesper immediately approached the child and asked if the child knew the man. Jesper informed his Duty Manager about the incident and brought the child to the reception area, away from the Caucasian man.

The Caucasian man was asked to leave the premises, as he was not a guest. Jesper managed to calm the child down and escorted him to his room on the 13th floor.

Jesper demonstrated exceptional vigilance, courage, and commitment to guest safety by intervening promptly to protect a child from harassment by a drunken individual within the hotel premises.

Azhar Hamid
Safety & Security Manager
ONE°15 Marina Sentosa Cove, Singapore

Azhar was conducting CCTV surveillance when he spotted a male subject acting suspiciously in front of one of the gates of the hotel's premises. While monitoring the subject, Azhar discovered that the subject had tailgated one of the hotel crew when entering the hotel. Azhar immediately alerted an Auxiliary Police officer and a security officer to the location while he continued to monitor the male subject's movements via CCTV. The officers managed to detain the subject and brought him for questioning.

However, the subject turned aggressive, and Azhar immediately called the Police for assistance. Investigations revealed that the subject had encroached into one of the nearby boats and meddled with some cans containing flammable liquid. The Police subsequently took over the situation.

Azhar's vigilance and quick actions are to be lauded.

Ngo Xiao Qi
HR Executive
Orchard Hotel Singapore

Xiao Qi was doing checks on casual labour staff when she noticed something was amiss with the student pass documentation of Mr N, a foreign student, supplied by their casual labour agency.

She reported the case to the Assistant Security Manager, and they investigated further. Mr N was brought to HR for further investigation.

The HR department found that Mr N had forged his school pass when he was in fact from an educational institution whose students were not approved to work. A police report was subsequently lodged by the hotel.

Xiao Qi's vigilance and eye for details are commendable.

SHA Honesty Award

The SHA Honesty Award is presented to hotel employees in recognition for their acts of honesty as well as for their contribution to the image of Singapore as a safe place for tourists.

A total of 108 nominations for the SHA Honesty Award were received from 47 hotels. The following 3 nominees were given the Special Mention Award for their acts of honesty:

Kenny Yu Fu Peng
Housekeeping Supervisor
Holiday Inn Singapore Atrium

Kenny demonstrated exceptional integrity while performing his night shift duties at the hotel bar. While cleaning during closing hours, Kenny discovered a Cartier Bracelet. He promptly reported his find to the Duty Manager, ensuring the bracelet was safely secured.

Kenny's actions exemplify the importance of honesty and ethical conduct in the workplace and set a commendable example for his colleagues.

Jiang Liyan
Housekeeping Room Attendant
Hotel Grand Pacific

While cleaning a check-out room, Liyan found an envelope containing a large sum of money on the floor under the sofa chair. Liyan immediately reported her find to her Housekeeping Manager.

The cash amounting to $10,023.70 was eventually returned to the grateful guest upon her return to the hotel to collect their deposited luggage from the front desk the same afternoon.

The envelope contained cash comprising 94 pieces of $100, 12 pieces of $50, 2 pieces of $10, 1 piece of $2, 1 piece of $1, 1 piece of $0.50, and $0.20 x 1 piece.

Wang Yan Ping
Room Attendant
Park Avenue Changi Hotels & Suites

While cleaning a hotel room whose guests have already checked out of, Yan Ping found two opened packets of chocolate inside the fridge. Upon checking, she saw cash (AUD50 and AUD100 notes) inside the packets.

She immediately took a photo to notify her superior and brought the items to housekeeping department soon after. The hotel then promptly contacted the grateful guest upon finding the money.
